Attention To Details Sun Valley Idaho Office Announces Auto Detailing Career Opportunity

Boise Idaho- May 22, 2006 – With more and more of America moving to rural communities around the country, it's no surprise that with growth comes opportunity. "The opportunity in our Sun Valley Idaho office is an unbelievable career opportunity for someone that desires to blend lifestyle and professional goals", announced Renny Doyle, Founder and General Manager of Attention To Details. "Sun Valley is where this company grew the most and for that reason this location is very special to me", Doyle explained. "The Sun Valley location is the top detailer in one of the most diverse and wealthy communities in the nation and with that diversity comes a great need for dedicated professionals. With our recent relocation of our corporate office from Sun Valley to Boise Idaho, I need someone I can trust and with that level of experience comes a great compensation package" Doyle highlights.

Renny adds, "While the right candidate does need to have a high level of drive and professionalism, direct detailing experience is not a must as I like to train people, train them to our level of detailing because as we all know, not all details are equal”.

If you would like to be considered for our Head Detailer/Sun Valley General Manager position or our office manager/inside sales position in our Boise main office, please forward your resume to admin@detailingsuccess.com
